MISSIONARY FUNDS NOT MISUSED.

THE TRACT SOCIETY AND BOARD OFFICERS REPLY TO ASPERSIONS CONCERN-ING INVESTMENTS.

A pamphlet published by Alexander Jay Bruen, a lawyer at No. 41 Park Row, entitled "Our Charities and How They Are Managed," has caused some comment because of the severe criticism of the first part of the pamphlet, Mr. Bruen takes to ask the Foreign and Home Missionary Boards of the Presbyterian Church and the American Tract ociety because they have seen fit to erect such rge and expensive buildings. The Presbyterian og is at Fifth-ave, and Twentieth-st., and the ling of the American Tract Society is at ice and Nassau sts. He says:

big building of the American Tract Society is at Spruce and Nassau sts. He says:

Most charitable societies treat the money they receive as if it were their own to use as any caprice may dictate. Too often it is hoarded up, put away in so-called safe investments or used in erecting some sky-scraper in the shape of a million-dollar building. This is not all: the society mortgages its property for a million to assist in raising funds for the building, thus putting in jeopardy all their property by entering the arena of speculation. This is notably the case with the American Tract Society and the Boards of Domestic and Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church. Each of these societies has mortgaged its property for over a million dollars, and in doing so has diverted money given them for a far different purpose to the hazards incident to gigantic real estate speculation. Because they easily acquire money from the benevolent, they seem to think it makes little matter how they use it, never reflecting that the money was given for a specific purpose, and that the officers of the society are mere trustees, agents of the donors, to distribute their gifts for the purposes for which they were given. It is high time that the courts were invoked to discipline these speculators with trust funds and misusers of official position.

Robert E. Speer, the secretary of the Board of Robert E. Speer, the secretary of the Board of foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, was seen in regard to the matter by a Tribune reporter yesterday afternoon. He said: "Any man who says that any funds given for other purposes were used or diverted in erecting this building is mistaken, that is all. The same cry has gone up before. It went up when we moved into our first building at No. 23 Centre-st. At that time the building was considered as fine as this is now. The cry was raised again when we went into our building at No. 53 Fifth-ave., and now we hear it about this building. All of the money that was used by us in the erection of this building was given to us for that very purpose. I will show you the report of the Building Committee, which was submitted April 6."

The report showed that the net cost of the lots at Fifth-ave, and Twentieth-st., on which the building including the commission of the contractor, Charles T. Wills, of $30,000 for his personal services and supervision of the work, was $982,722 49. Other expenses bring the total net cost of lots and buildings, as on July 1, 1895, up to $1,757,500 19. In order to provide this money, a mortgage of $300,000 was secured from the Seamen's Bank for Savings; $340.

supervision of the work, was $82,72249. Other expenses bring the total net cost of lots and buildings, as on July 1, 1835, up to $1,757,500 19. In order to provide this money, a mortgage of $90,000 was secured from the Seamen's Bank for Savings; $340,000 was sourrowed temporarily on the buildings and lots at No. $3 Fifth-ave, to be paid when that property is sold; gifts to the Boards specially designated toward the payment for the lots and buildings amounted to about $50,000, and $467,500 19 was secured for that purpose from the will of Mrs. R. L. Stuart. The report then goes on to say: "From this statement it will be seen that the oft-repeated assertions, made, we believe, in most cases honestly though ignorantly, that the Boards were using funds which had been given or bequeathed to them for their current work, and that their diversion to pay the cost of the lots and building was the cause of the lots and building was the cause of the first current work, and that their diversion to pay the cost of the lots and building was the cause of the saction of the society. lation of debt under which they were struggling, have absolutely no foundation in fact." The report was signed by John S. Kennedy, John Crosby Brown, Darwin R. James and Alexander Maitland, the members of the Building Committee. There is quite a sum of money left from the Stuart estate that will be used to pay off the mortgage. A sinking fund will be started, and the moneys remaining from the office rentals after the running expenses are paid will be used for this purpose. There will also be money remaining after the sale of the property at No. 33 Flith-ave. which will be used for the same purpose.

money remaining after the sale of the property at No. 33 Fifth-ave. which will be used for the same purpose.

One of the secretaries of the American Tract Society, William W. Rand, was seen at No. 10 East Twenty-third-st., where the offices of the society are located. He said: "Not one penny that we have received to be used in the prosecution of our work, the distribution of tracts and books, has been diverted in order that we might construct our building at Spruce and Nassau sts. We built that as a safe and good investment. We borrowed all the money that was used in the construction, and the building is now mortgaged for that amount. The whole property is worth about $2,500,000, and the lots alone are worth about $1,000,000. We were offered $300,000 for it, but did not think that we ought to dispose of it for less than a million. We shall establish a sinking fund with moneys that may be left over from the rents or may come to us for that purpose, and in this way pay off the mortgage. It was not a speculation, but a safe investment."

LOCAL BUSINESS COMPLICATIONS.

Deputy Sheriff Lipsky yesterday took charge of the place of business of Julius J. Adam, manufacturer of women's underwear, waists, etc., at No. 41 Broadway, on an execution from Max Altmeyer, for $4,516, for money lent to Mr. Adam by his wife. Mr. Adam has been in this line of business on his own account for fifteen years, and has heretofore alleged a capital of $20,000. Mr. Altmeyer ascribes the failure to dull trade, depreciation in stock, and poor collections, so that he was unable to meet obligations coming due. Mr. Alt-meyer said that the liabilities were about $12,000 and nominal assets, $7,000. Mr. Adam had been sick for several months, which was also one of the

AGAIN REPORTED SOLD.

MORE RUMORS THAT THE HOBOKEN FERRY COM-PANY PROPERTY HAS BEEN PURCHASED BY A SYNDICATE.

A rumor that the Hoboxen Ferry Company had old its property to a syndicate of Wall Street speculators was in circulation yesterday. It is not the first time that stories have gone abroad in regard to the sale of this ferry. Articles have appeared announcing that it had been sold to the Delaware, Lackwanna and Western Railroad Company, which later were denied by both railroad and ferry offcials. It is well known, however, that there have been negotiations in the past pending between these two corporations, which have come to nothing, for the reason, it is said, that no agreement could be reached regarding terms.

Yesterday's reported sale did not seem improbable, in view of the fact that already several of the ferry systems of New-York have been pur-chased by syndicates and are now being run under their management. The Union Ferry Company may be mentioned as an example. In the present instance it was said that the object of the syndicate is to force the sale of the ferry property apon a railroad company at a large advance. In view of existing conditions, it is more reasonable to sup-pose that a purchase by the syndicate would be in the nature of a legitimate investment, for it is understood that by cutting down expenses and by introducing other forms of skilful management, ferry property can be made to give satisfactory returns.

Palmer Campbell, treasurer and attorncy of the Hoboken Ferry Company, when seen by a Titune reporter yesterday afternoon, said there was no truth whatever in the report that the company had sold the ferry. He was unwilling to say anything in regard to any prospects there might be regarding a sale.

FOUND A SLEEPING BABY.

Park Policeman Matthew Horn, while on duty in Pelham Bay Park at 6 o'clock last evening, found a well-dressed baby boy lying on the ground a few feet from Prospect Hill road. The child was about two months old. It had not been wrapped in any covering and had nothing on save the ordinary long clothes of a baby. Some of the articles were hand-made, and considerable taste had been displayed in dressing the child. The pohad been displayed in dressing the child. The po-liceman took his find to the Westchester station. The news of the find preceded him, and as the 200-pound officer carrying the fifteen-pound baby passed through the streets he was followed by a crowd of 209 men, women and boys. At the station the child was turned over to the sergeant at the desk, and will be sent to the city this morning, in case the mother is not discoverde. In the mean-time it is cared for by a woman who volunteered to do so. A nursing-bottle, half-filled with milk, was found beside the child. The little one had evi-dently drank the milk and gone to sleep.
